ABOUT ME

Hello! I am Erdener. I am here with my passion for volunteer projects and my desire to make a difference by participating in the European Solidarity Program. Some of the qualities that make me successful are being responsible, motivating, and a team player. I am confident in my language skills as well. As someone who respects different cultures and has strong communication abilities, I want to use my language skills to interact with diverse communities. My interest in volunteer projects is focused on working with children, environmental conservation, and community services. In these projects, I want to help people, create awareness about social issues, and contribute to a sustainable world.
